

Spice It Up!

Ms. Beard thinks that everyday life at Ella Mentry School is too boring for TV. Instead of letting The Real Teachers of Ella Mentry School show get canceled, she takes matters into her own hands and adds some spice to the school day.

How would your school be different if you could add some spice to your day? First, write down what happened in reality. Then go back and spice up your answers to make your school prime time ready.

What were your morning announcements?

My Reality: _____

TV Reality: _____

What was the funniest thing that you saw today?

My Reality: _____

TV Reality: _____

What did you eat for lunch?

My Reality: _____

TV Reality: _____

What was the most interesting thing that you overheard today?

My Reality: _____

TV Reality: _____

What was your favorite or proudest moment in class today?

My Reality: _____

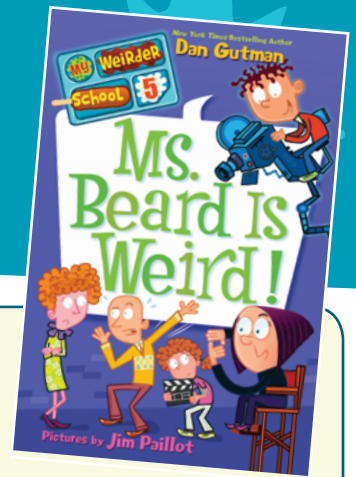

TV Reality: _____

Teachers: Visit www.myweirdclassroomclub.com for more My Weirder School activities.

HARPER

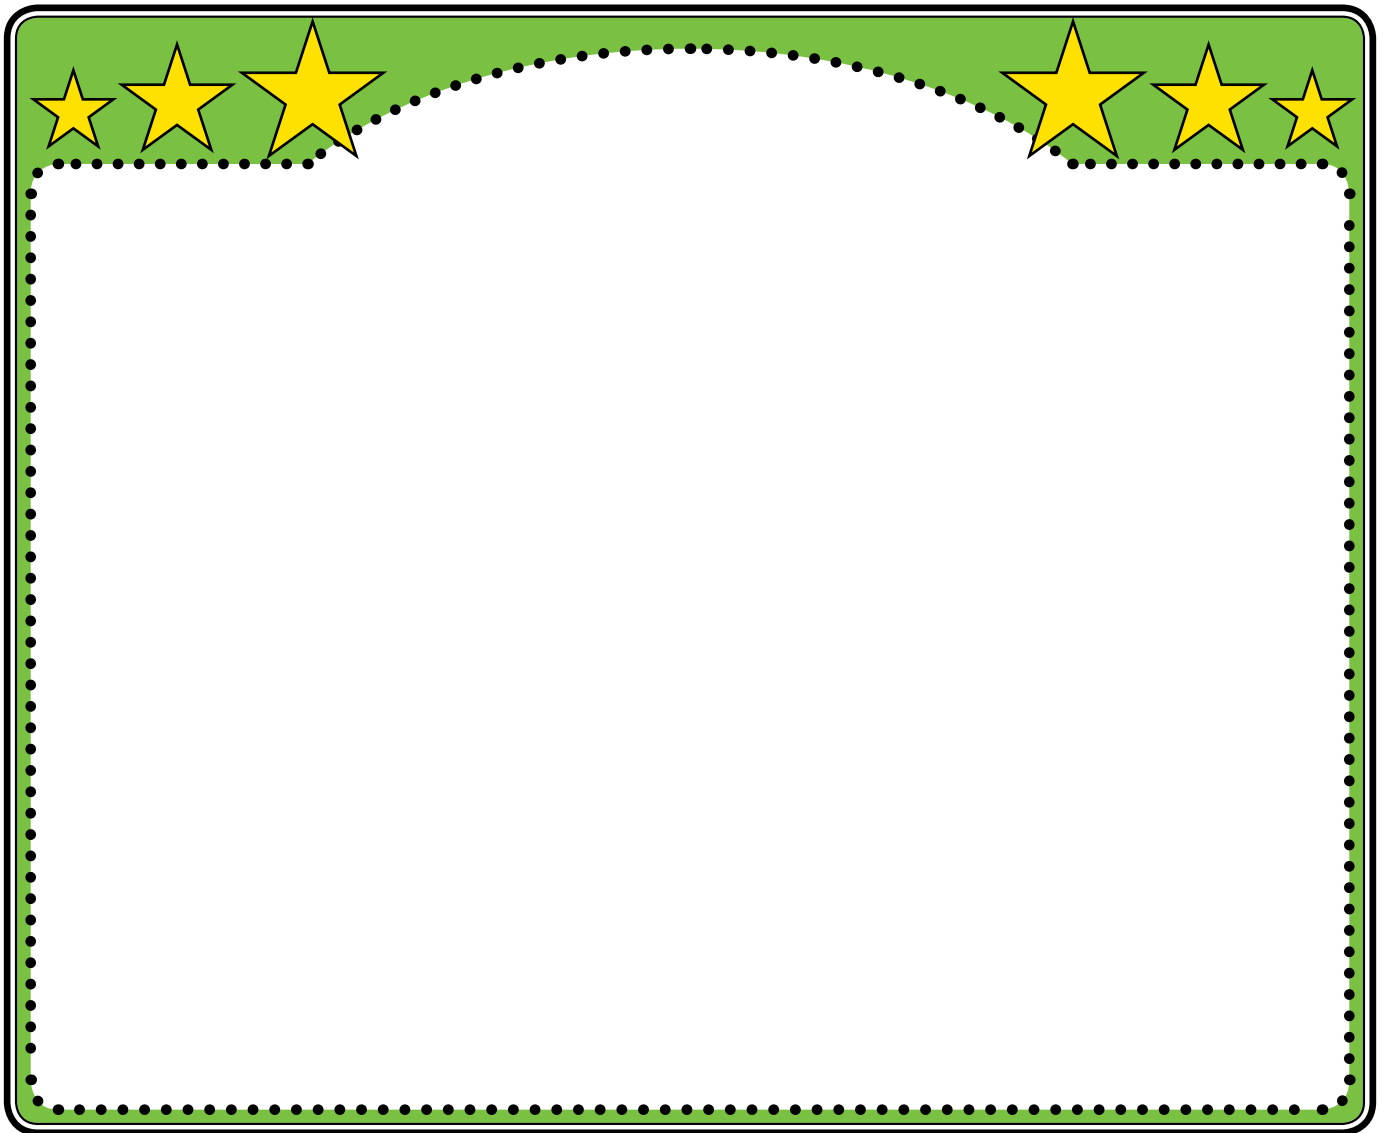

An Imprint of HarperCollins Publishers

America's Next Big Reality Star!

Congratulations—you have been selected as America's next big reality star! Hollywood camera crews will document your life and follow your every move 24/7. What will the world see? How will you be portrayed?

To generate buzz, create a poster advertising your show. Be sure to include pictures of you, your friends and family (who will be your co-stars), and images of your favorite pastimes. This is the first impression America will have of you—so make it sizzle!

Teachers: Visit www.myweirdclassroomclub.com for more My Weirder School activities.

HARPER

An Imprint of HarperCollinsPublishers