Game Is Based on Book by Peter Post

If you were hopelessly lost, would your significant other stop for directions? Is it okay to sneak a peek at the handsome man across the restaurant? How did Casanova become so famous as a lover?

These questions and many more are posed in "Kiss & Make Up: An Etiquette Game for Couples." Based on Essential Manners for Couples, "Kiss & Make Up" presents couples with a chance to laugh, debate, disagree, and learn a thing or two about each other.

Print out each of these sheets (directions are included), cut them out, and invite your friends to play!
